The status of your game – accurately analysed

From 2020 onwards, PGA professional Stephan Peters will put your game of golf under the spotlight, and will analyse it directly on the course. He will give you a detailed assessment of the status of your current game and your skills.

Where do you still have room for a better handicap or to improve your play? Our long-established golf trainer will develop your competences from a technical and tactical as well as a physical and athletic point of view. His analysis includes play

- from the tee
- alongside the hole
- on a green
- beside the green
- on the green
- on the fairway
